

Rockwell Collins Australia Pty Ltd

is certified as an

Approved Maintenance Organisation

for aviation maintenance activities within the scope, level, conditions and limitations defined in the attached Schedule

T.J. SAUNDER
Air Commodore
Director General Technical Airworthiness
ADF Technical Airworthiness Regulator

Certificate Number : DGTA-O-048M Issue 2 Dated : 27 May 2011

The following maintenance activities may be conducted by

Rockwell Collins Australia Pty Ltd

- | | | | |
|----|---|-----------|-----------|
| 1. | Maintenance of whole aircraft / engine | | |
| | Nil | | |
| 2. | Maintenance of Aeronautical Product/Support and Test Equipment | OM | DM |
| | a. Aircraft electronic and communications equipment | No | Yes |
| | b. Hand held GPS equipment | No | Yes |
| 3. | Aviation Support Systems | | |
| | Nil | | |
| 4. | Specialised maintenance tasks for ADF aircraft and Aeronautical Product | | |
| | Nil | | |

LIMITATIONS

1. Nil

CONDITIONS

1. Nil

The Senior Maintenance Manager (SMM) is responsible for assuring that maintenance conducted remains within the scope and level detailed in their Maintenance Management Plan (MMP). The SMM is to report to the TAR in writing any changes that could affect the basis on which this Schedule is issued.